ONE DAY by Adrian Sierra Garcia becomes ONE YEAR at Benhadj & Djilali Gallery in Berlin.

For 2019, the Benhadj & Djilali Gallery becomes a cultural 'hub' with the aims to build a local and international community around the topics of borders and border walls.

With the current global, extreme political divide, there is a desperate need to connect cultures to each other and the people to their environment. The Benhadj & Djilali Gallery proposes a project that transcends cultural barriers and cultural events as vectors for positive social change.

Berlin is the modern day reference for walls and overcoming them.

30 years after the Fall of the Wall, Berlin is the obvious field and ONE DAY | BERLIN art exhibition by Adrian Sierra Garcia the perfect platform to showcase what presently happens in other parts of the world.
